

Cherry Tree Guild

The cherry is a self-fertile tree. The guild includes nitrogen fixers, insectories, pest repellents, weed suppressors, and mulch makers. Most of the plants are perennials and have edible fruit, flowers or shoots. The planting location should have a minimum of 6 hours sunlight and be 8' by 8'.